Foreword

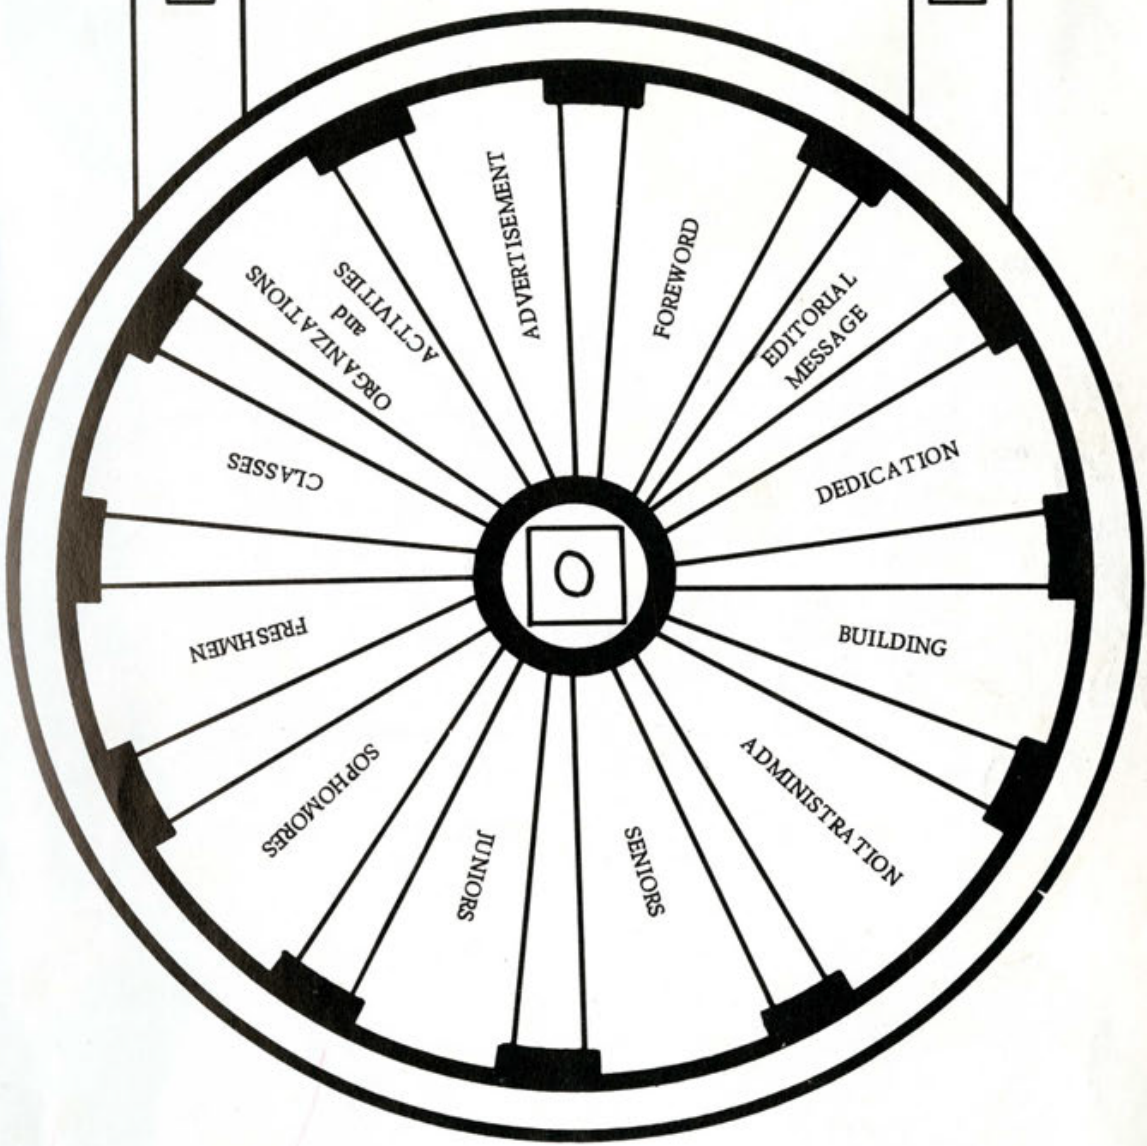

Panther Staff

Follow us through the pages of THE '59 PANTHER and you will see the record of

How we work

How we play

How we live together...

Editorial Message

Here is our 1959 Panther.

Much effort has gone into it and much burning of midnight oil - but we shall count it all well spent if it will serve as your testimonial to a full and happy year. It is our wish that as you turn these pages your high school years will unfold in retrospect and you will decorate anew the Gymnasium for the Junior-Senior Prom, cheer again the Panthers as they go on the Basketball court and thrill once more to the music of the Glee Club and the Band.

We hope you will enjoy this book as much as we enjoyed preparing it. It has been ours for almost a year, now it belongs to you---

Dedication to Our Six Years

The theme of "The 1959 Panther" is the "Wheel of Knowledge." "Knowledge does not mean just knowing facts. Being able to apply the facts in daily living is equally important. Knowledge keeps our society moving toward progress. We hope that our students, like the great wheel, will turn and be a part of this great movement, and remember that - Ignorance is the curse of God, knowledge the wing wherewith we fly to heaven.

Class Will

We, the Senior Class of Newbold High School, in this year of nineteen hundred and fifty-nine, being in reasonably good health and of doubtfully sound mind, realizing the uncertainty of grades and vacillating dispositions of our faculty members, do hereby make this, our last will and testament.

- I, Alfred Becton, bequeath Clarence Koonce and Ernest King my ability to play basketball.
- I, George Benders, bequeath Ernest King my ability to be Newbold's best rebounder of the 1959-60 basketball season.
- I, Ida Brown, bequeath Peggy Brown my ability to be Newbold's best dancer when she becomes a senior.
- I, Doris Bruton, bequeath Juliet Williams and Eula Pugh my bobbed hair style.
- I, Bernard Bryant, bequeath Chester Rouse a part of my knowledge.
- I, Joshua Bryant, bequeath Henry Brown bus 27.
- I, Jacquelin Bryant, bequeath Helen McCoy the ability to participate in the band and be an honor student.
- I, Malachi Bryant, bequeath Eddie Smith my ability to come to school.
- I, Nadine Bryant, bequeath my flute and position in the band to Ethelene Dillahunt.
- I, Leo Chadwick, bequeath Dalton Crowell my ability to play a piano and a portion of my friendly personality.
- I, Beatrice Chapman, bequeath Sarah Cox my singing ability.
- I, Eva Chapman, bequeath Dorothy Dawson my stylish walk, and Shirley Chapman my winning smile.
- I, Ella Coward, bequeath Willie White a pack of cigarettes, so she can quit waiting around for other people's ducks.
- I, Icesolene Fleming, bequeath Carolyn Murphy the front seat on bus 51.
- I, Lauralene Fleming, do not leave anything, I am just thankful I got out.
- I, Elbert Foye, bequeath Robert Allen my ability to stay in class.
- I, Mary Lue Hardy, bequeath my ability to make A's in French to Eula Pugh and Juliet Williams.
- I, Betty Hargett, bequeath Betty Tune my ability to sing.
- I, Clara Hargett, bequeath Annie Hargett the ability to acquire better grades before finishing High School.
- I, James Jackson, bequeath Allen Ray Jones the ability to get a better hair cut, in future years.
- I, Carrie Johnson, wish I had something to leave but circumstances being as they are I need all I've got and more too!
- I, Ernestine Kelly, bequeath Artis Bright and Mary Dunk my ability not to stand in the hall and gossip at lunch period.
- I, Joseph Kilpatrick, bequeath Barbara Collina the ability to act civilized.
- I, Sudie Lane, bequeath Evelyn Lane my ability to study hard and Barbara Collins some of my knowledge.
- I, Bertha Lloyd, bequeath Alphonradia King and Sarah Cox my baritone and bass horn.
- I, Eva Lofton, bequeath Helen Dixon a part of my height and size.
- I, Bonnie Mewborn, bequeath Doris Allen my position to be the most popular girl next year.
- I, George Moore, bequeath Roland Beckwith my ability to get along with the girls.
- I, Ernestine Moye, bequeath Robert Allen my ability to become a Senior.
- I, Clifton Newkirk, bequeath Chester Rouse my ability to engage in friendly conversation to any young lady.
- I, Vashti Nobles, bequeath Carolyn Murphy a portion of my slimness.
- I, Mildred Norfleet, bequeath Carolyn Murphy and Doris Jones my ability to be less comical.
- I, Barbara Wallace, bequeath Annie Greene the ability to learn how to act on the school bus.
- I, Sally Wallace, bequeath Doris Jones the ability to learn how to act at all times.
- I, John Whitfield, bequeath James Dawson and George Flowers and William Whitfield the ability to stop smoking.
- I, Henry Wiggins, bequeath Dalton Crowell my ability to wear the coolest and warmest hair cut (The College Bald).
- I, Lovie Williams, bequeath Bettie Pearl Chapman a portion of my height.
- I, Janice Williams, bequeath Albert Freeman my ability to attend to my own business.
- To the entire junior class we leave the good times we've had during our senior year.
- To the sophomores we leave our intelligence and dignity to aid them throughout their remaining high school days.
- To the freshmen and sub-freshmen we leave our long hours spent working for that little white diploma.
- To the faculty we leave a sense of accomplishment and possibly relief after finally bidding us farewell.

Respectfully submitted and witnessed by:

We'll Be Seeing You-

ALMA MATER

O! Newbold School,
We'd give the world for you,
Our Alma Mater.
We sing a song of praise,
Long may thy work,
Great and lasting be.
Honored ever more,
Dear Alma Mater dear.

Newbold we give you our hearts,
From others we've set you apart.
For thy shelter we sigh,
As the years go by.

True to thee,
We'll always be,
Naught shall dim our loyalty.
We all acclaim your worth,
With proud affection,
Real and true.

Dear Jacqueline:
 You are a very fine young person.
 May you have always the best.

Love,
 Mrs. C.C. Hill
